Dear TitleOne Corporation Customer:

The Financial Services Modernization Act recently enacted by Congress has brought many changes to the financial services industry, which includes title insurance agencies. One of the changes is that we are now required to explain to our customers the ways in which we collect and use customer information. The following statement is the privacy policy of TitleOne Corporation:

We may share internally and with nonaffiliated third parties in order to carry out and service your transaction, to protect against fraud or unauthorized transactions, for institutional risk control, and to provide information to government and law enforcement agencies. Companies within a family may share certain information among themselves in order to identify and market their own products that they think may be useful to you. Credit information about you is shared only to facilitate your transaction or for some other purpose permitted by law.

How we protect your information. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need the information to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with law to guard your nonpublic personal information. We reinforce the company's privacy policy with our employees.
